DAILY ROUTINE

Here's a typical day at Lucky Dog.

6:30-6:45

Boarders waking up, being fed and given time outside. In the arenas and ready to go by 7:00.

7:00-9:00

Most daycare dogs arrive during that time. Those that need introductions are introduced to the gang and begin their day.

11:30-1:30

Naptime. Yes, the dogs really do nap. Dogs retire to individual kennels for rest and rehydration. Staff takes advantage of downtime for housekeeping, office work, etc.

1:30

Everybody's back at it.

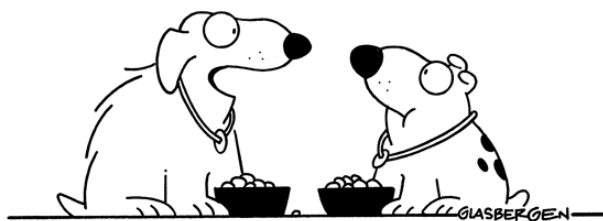

5:45-6:00

Boarders are let out before retiring for dinner and rest. Staff begins winding down the day, by starting daily cleaning duties. Daycare dogs are moved to one of the arenas where they continue to play, while other areas are cleaned, vacuumed, mopped, etc.

6:30 End of day for daycare.

9:00-10:00 Nightly let out/playtime for boarders

"If we measure time in dog years, shouldn't we get fed 21 times a day?"

PLAYA RESCUE BOX

Once again, we will be collecting donations for the Playa Animal Rescue, in Playa Del Carmen, Mx. Lucky Dog has placed a receptacle box in the office for donations. Current wish list includes, toys, treats, leashes, collars, meds, etc. We hope the get the items delivered by July.

SPRING BREAK SURVIVAL

We made it! Lot's of work and lots of hours, but all went well. A special thank you to all our staff that put in the extra hours, double/triple shifts - cleaned like never before, and took great care of all our friends. So, thank you to wranglers Ben, Kevin, Amanda, Madi and Joe. You made the dogs comfortable and made sure they felt right at home. Of course thanks to Laura, the glue that holds it all together!

WORTH WATCHING

Approximately 600 dog owners have reported their otherwise healthy pets suddenly becoming seriously ill recently. It seems these sudden and mysterious illnesses are due to the treats owners are feeding their pets. Three brands of chicken jerky style dog treats have been linked to recent disease in dogs. FDA officials have linked Waggin' Train Chicken Jerky, Canyon Creek Ranch Chicken Jerky and Milo's Kitchen Home-Style Dog Treats to many of the recently reported cases of dog illness, reports MSNBC. All three brands of dog treats are made in China, and it is not the first time that Chinese-made chicken jerky dog treats have raised problems. In November MSNBC reported that the FDA determined approximately 70 dogs suffered illnesses due to chicken jerky treats that were made in China. Both Waggin' Train and Canyon Creek Ranch treats are made by the Nestle Purina Pet Care Company. Milo's Kitchen Home-Style treats are made by the Del Monte Corporation. Despite illness being linked to these products and brands, "No specific products have been recalled because a definitive cause has not been determined," an FDA statement said.

GROOMING

We continue to offer grooming to members and non members. While we are able to honor most requests, we would appreciate it if you would make an appointment if at all possible. As mentioned before, our credit card system does not allow an extra line for adding tips for services offered, that's why we ask if you would like to leave the groomer a tip. It's totally discretionary.
